BPI-Certified compostable and biodegradable, Karat Earth bagasse plates have one- or three-compartments and are available in a variety of sizes from 6" to 10". Utilizing mother nature's every resource, our eco-friendly plates are made with the sugarcane fibers left over after extraction from sugar. These fibers are strong, durable, and make a great source of sustainable material for food packaging. Great for hot and cold foods or served on premises, these plates have a naturally sturdy structure, making them perfect for all of your delicious creations.
